Important Event to Report:
Collective redundancy program

Chimcomplex informs the investors about the start of a collective redundancy program targeting a number of 396 employees of the company.

This measure is based on the need to resize and streamline the Company's activity, as a result of the synergies/mergers between the industrial platforms in Râmnicu Vâlcea and Onești, but also in the current economic and geo-political context, in which the company aims to optimize the operational and operating costs, to streamline its activity, in order to use the human and financial resources with maximum efficiency, adapt to the influences exerted by the national and international crisis context in order to overcome all challenges.
